TRANSPORT ASSISTANCE FOR THE ELDERLY

The CHC Transport Assistance for the Elderly (TAE) aims to provide transport subsidies to the elderly amongst its members (or elderly dependents of its members), who have multiple medical appointments and are unable to support themselves.

A. Who is eligible for this scheme?

1. Applicants and recipients are either be members of CHC or elderly dependents (namely, parents or grandparents) of CHC members.
2. Recipients are elderly persons, aged 65 years old or above. For recipients who are under the age of 65 years old, assistance may still be granted on a case by case basis.
3. Recipients' per capita monthly household income is $700 or below.
4. Recipients are unable to help themselves or have difficulties coping with their daily activities.

B. Nature of assistance

1. CHC staff or its appointed agents will assess each application. Depending on the household's financial situation, successful applicants will receive cash grants for transport expenses for a period of up to six months.

Note: CHC reserves the right to determine the amount of assistance.

2. After the initial assistance period, the family's eligibility will be reviewed and appraised by CHC staff or its appointed agent to determine if such assistance ought to be continued, varied, substituted or terminated.

C. How to apply for this scheme?

1. CHC MAE application forms are available from our corporate office at 1 Raffles Boulevard, #05-02, S039593 (Tel: 6737-6266). Alternatively, you may download the form from our Web site at www.chc.org.sg.
2. Recipients can either apply themselves or request the assistance of CHC staff or other CHC members in filling up and submitting the forms for them.
3. CHC members who know of any eligible candidates (please refer to criteria in Section A above) may also notify CHC staff of such candidates or apply on their behalf.
4. CHC or its appointed agent may require applicants or candidates to furnish additional information or may arrange interviews with them to better appraise an application.

5. Applicants are required to attend an interview by a CHC staff or its appointed agent, who will appraise the suitability and eligibility of the applicant and the merits of the application, and thereafter make recommendations either to approve or reject the application.
