

JUMP SO HIGH

Written By Charissa Tan

Jesus You're my everything
And no one else can separate us
Jesus You have made me whole
So I have joy and freedom in You
Jesus You're my everything
And no one else can separate us
Jesus You are in my heart
So I am not afraid

I'm gonna jump, jump, jump, jump so high
Because my God is mighty and He's with me
Jump, jump, jump, jump so high
Because my God is mighty and He's with me
All the way, He is great

Jesus You're my everything
And no one else can separate us
Jesus where my help comes from
I found my strength and power in You
Jesus You're my everything
And no one else can separate us
Jesus You are in my heart
So I am not afraid

Jesus is the way
No one can take Your place
Jesus is the way to my heart
