

MY EVERYTHING

Written by: Charissa Tan

Singers: Charissa Tan, Aretha Lim

Verse

I put away all my distraction
Standing here in this place
Waiting for You

I feel Your presence in this place
Your love casts out all fear
You are enough for me

Pre-Chorus

So help me to see
That You are near

Chorus

Jesus You're my everything
There is no one else like You
You are all that I need
All that I want
All that I desire
I want to know You more
So take me deeper
'Cause it is in this place
Where I found myself
Lost in Your love
